Brothers:

This email is being sent to give plenty of advance notice regarding the upcoming retreat sessions in January so that we can reach the volunteer participation level that all three groups of brothers-in-white deserve and that the Lord would expect of the "freedom" side of the Kairos-Allred brotherhood.

As has been the case with our previous retreats, there will be two separate Saturdays to accommodate all three groups. These will take place on Saturday, January 20, 2018 (for Groups 1 and 2) and also on the following Saturday, January 27, 2018 (for Group 3).

Since there are three possible responses for our retreats, the Gate List procedure (link shown above) will require one of three responses:

(1) January 20 (2) January 27 or (3) BOTH.

Obviously your response will depend on your own ability to commit to just one or both of the retreat days.

Additionally, I would like to ask you in advance to prayerfully consider giving a talk at the retreat(s) you will be attending. If you feel you would like to have your name added to the potential list of speakers, please respond to me directly by email at: jsweeney71101@hotmail.com

Early on in the New Year you will receive any additional retreat details, actual speaking assignments, and finalized agenda for both Saturdays.

Thanks again to all my brothers for taking the time to help spread the love of Jesus by your example and your love. With your commitment and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, I believe our January Kairos-Allred Retreats will be a blessing to all.

John Sweeney, Retreat Leader
